Past Events

I was away on the Fourth, but I've been told that Weymouth had a great fireworks display and hopefully some of the members took advantage of the view from the QYC.

On Sunday, July 10th, there was a point dive scheduled for Martin's Ledge. Roy Chamberlain reported that there were five Neptune's who departed the floats at the Quincy Yacht Club at 8:00 A.M. There was Roy, Marshal Reynard, Tommy Lo, Todd Alger and Will Woodman. After a pass by Pemberton Pier, the boat headed for Martin's Ledge. On arrival at Martin's Ledge the Captain and his crew found that their's was the only boat out for the club dive. The vote of those on board was to skip Martin's and head for Devil's Back. Here is a site where you can't be sure how you'll do. You could end up with artifacts or you might do well with the lobster. Roy didn't report on Devil's Back except to say that after Devil's Back they headed for Grave's Light. At the Graves Roy states that he got five lobster, Marshall got himself eleven bugs and Tommy, who didn't dive got himself several sand sharks. There was no report on how Todd and Will fared. Roy added that on this dive he saw more sand sharks than he has ever seen diving. He says they were all over the place. They circled above and then others would come up to you and veer away or sometimes bump you.

On Tuesday evening, July 19th, there was a scheduled cookout, knife sharpening session and film night at the clubhouse. Well as luck would have it, it was an oppressive night. Initially there was Marty Blake, Tom Guild, Kathi Bell John Blackadar and Roy Chamberlain at the clubhouse. They decided that they would get out the equipment used at the Duxbury outing and make sure everything was servicable. As they checked the gear several other members straggled in and Marty started the grill and put on the dogs and burgers with some peppers and onions and served them up with potato salad.

The non-point dive for July was on Sunday, the 24th. Marshall Reynard with Tom Lo, Todd Alger, Moe Leger and a neighbor of Marshall's, Bob ?, left from the Quincy Yacht Club around 8:15 A.M. Marshall tried to make radio contact with any other club boats that may have left from other locations. He did not get any response. They headed out to Outer Brewster where they did their first dive. They next set out to dive the 'Romance' but there numbers were off and they did not locate the wreck. Marshall then went to the 'City of Salisbury' for another dive and finally ended up doing a bottle dive back inside the Brewsters. Tom Lo reports that he ended up with 8 lobster, Marshall bagged 3 and Todd got himself 6. Kathi Bell reports that she was aboard Ed Bates' boat along with Tim Niu and Joe Geyer. They missed making contact with Marshall and they did their diving at Grave's Light and Green Island. Joe Geyer ended up with 5 lobster and Tim Niu also bagged 5 lobster. They also picked up a mess of crabs for a neighbor of Ed's who was craving a crab feed.

Upcoming Events

The calendar for August lists rugby at the Randolph pool on Monday and Wednesday nights. JayTherault reports that there has been a shakeup in the staff and it could affect the schedule. But at the current time there has been no notice of any changes.

Onca again it is Family Outing time. This year's outing will be on Sunday, August 7th, and it will again be at Duxbury Beach. All the particulars are listed on the next page. Make your plans to attend and notify Angelo Correnti or Theresa Czeripica ASAP. This has always been a great day with plenty of food and lots of fun for the entire family. And its probably the cheapest ticket in town for what you get.

The non-point dive for the month is scheduled for Sunday, August 21st. The site for the dive will be selected at the boat on the day of the dive. It appears that any of the sites that have been selected lately are good sites. Take advantage of the availability of boats.

The Big Bash has almost arrived. It is the 50th Anniversary Dinner/ Dance to be held at Anthony's Pier Four, Boston, Saturday, August 20th If you have not bought your ticket yet, do it now, time is running out. All the planning is done and it looks to be a great evening out. It is a chance to meet up and renew acquaintances. We're looking forward to seeing you there!

On Sunday, August 21th, Myra Clancy is having a birthday party for Dave Clancy who will be 65 years old. She is extending an invitation to all Dave's friends and fellow club members. The party will be at Roy Chamberlain's house in Marshfield.

The point dive is scheduled for Sunday, August 28th, and the site selected for the dive is Harding's Ledge. Harding's is located out off of Nantasket and it has had its fair share of boats meet their demise on its rocky outcropping over the years. The site has been known to give up an artifact now and then as well as its being a habitat for those delectable lobster.
